NOTES

Discussion Panel (Wednesday) —

The book we'll be discussing is The New Christian Zionism: Fresh Perspectives on Israel & the Land edited by Gerald McDermott (IVP Books). Panel members include two of the book's contributors and two Messianic scholars. We appreciate all of them making the effort to be with us in Denver.

Meals are not included—with two notable exceptions. First, we will be providing a very nice continental breakfast on Wednesday before our morning worship time. And second, there will be a closing banquet on Wednesday night. For your convenience at other meal times, the hotel has a full-service restaurant—Kachina Southwestern Grill—as well as a Starbucks offering hot/cold drinks and snacks. There are several other popular restaurants located within a short distance of the hotel and offering Mexican, American, and Thai cuisine, among others.

Airport transportation — There's information about transportation to and from the Denver International Airport on our webpage at www.lcje-na.org and on the hotel website.

Hotel Info — The main information number at the Westin is (303) 410-5000 and their website is accessible at www.westindenverboulder.com. A floor plan is available on the website to help you locate the Standley Ballroom (general sessions & banquet) and the Lake House (Sunday evening reception).

Hotel Shuttle — The Westin operates a shuttle to and from destinations within a five-mile radius of the hotel. It's on a first-come, first-serve basis and can accommodate up to ten people at a time.

This year's Messianic Academics luncheon is scheduled for Tuesday at 1:15 PM in the Windsor Room (bring your own box lunch). Hélène Dallaire (Denver Seminary) is the point person for this initiative. It will be of interest to anyone involved in providing theological training for Messianic pastors, rabbis, or missionaries to the Jewish people, or anyone wishing to pursue accredited, professional training in Jewish studies from a Messianic perspective. For details or questions about the luncheon, please contact Hélène by emailing her at helene.dallaire@denverseminary.edu.

Sunday Night reception — This informal get-together will be held in the Lake House from 7:00 – 9:00 PM. Drinks, cookies, and assorted fruit will be served. Suggested donation is $10 per person. If you can't afford it, don't worry about it. We want you to come anyway.

Speaker bios and info — See the LCJE North America webpage at www.lcje-na.org.

Our meeting room — General sessions on all three days (and the closing banquet on Wednesday night) will be in the Standley Ballroom. See the floor plan on the hotel website for location.

A reminder about the webpage — For the latest, most up-to-date information before and during the conference, please consult the LCJE North American webpage at www.lcje-na.org. We are constantly updating the webpage (including this daily schedule), even during the three days of the conference.

A word about LCJE — The Lausanne movement unites evangelical believers around the world upon the basis of the Lausanne Covenant. For more information about the LCJE Network (Jim Melnick, international coordinator & Tuvya Zaretsky, president), including membership instructions, see www.lcje.net. If you'd like to learn more about the Lausanne movement worldwide, see www.lausanne.org.
