NOTES

Hotel Info — The Marriott Century Center/Emory is located at 2000 Century Boulevard NE, Atlanta, GA 30345. Detailed information about the hotel and the local area is available on their website (click here) or call (404) 325-0000.

Meals other than the closing banquet on Wednesday evening are not included in your conference registration. The hotel has a restaurant on site, the Stackstone Grille, which is open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. The Century Café located in the hotel lobby serves Starbucks coffee, grab-and-go pastries, as well as sandwiches and salads. There's a wide variety of restaurants within a short drive from the hotel, and a complimentary shuttle service is available within a 3 mile radius.

Airport transportation — Atlanta's world-class MARTA rapid transit system offers an inexpensive option ($2.50) for getting from the airport to the Brookhaven Station near the hotel. Information on MARTA can be found at <http://www.itsmarta.com/Airport.aspx>. You can take advantage of the hotel's complimentary shuttle service to and from the Brookhaven MARTA Station (see hotel website for more information). Estimated cost for a taxi from the airport is $50. Uber <https://www.uber.com/cities/atlanta/>, and Lyft <https://www.lyft.com/airports/atl>, services are also available.

This year's Messianic academics breakfast meeting is scheduled for Tuesday at 7:00 AM in the Centennial meeting room. Hélène Dallaire of Denver Seminary is the point person for this initiative. It will be of interest to anyone involved in providing theological training for Messianic pastors, rabbis, or missionaries to the Jewish people, or anyone wishing to pursue accredited, professional training in Jewish studies from a uniquely Messianic perspective. This breakfast has become a regular feature of our annual conferences. Please let Hélène know that you'll be attending by emailing her at helene.dallaire@denversemi-nary.edu.

Sunday Night reception — This informal get-together will take place on the patio area around the pool (weather permitting) from 7:00 – 9:00 PM. Jim Sibley of Israel College of the Bible in Netanya, Israel, is co-hosting this year's reception with Murray Tilles of Light of Messiah Ministries in Atlanta. Please drop by the Patio on Sunday evening and let Jim and Murray know you appreciate their generous hospitality.

Speaker bios and info — See the LCJE North America webpage at www.lcje-na.org.

Our meeting room — General sessions on all three days (and the closing banquet on Wednesday night) will be held in the Century Ballroom.

Display tables — Space will be limited in Atlanta, so please contact Cindy Castillo as soon as possible: cindyc@cjfm.org or (210) 226-1075.

A reminder about the webpage — For the latest, most up-to-date information before and during the conference, please consult the LCJE North American webpage at www.lcje-na.org. That's where you'll find the latest news and changes to the schedule. We are constantly updating the webpage, even during the three days of the conference.

A word about LCJE — The 1980 Lausanne Consultation on World Evangelization (LCWE) met in Pattaya, Thailand. One of its 17 mini-consultation groups was on "Reaching Jews"—and that was the genesis of LCJE. So, LCJE is the arm of the Lausanne movement that focuses on reaching Jewish people worldwide with the Good News of Yeshua the Messiah. The broader Lausanne movement unites Bible believers around the Lausanne Covenant, formulated by the late evangelical Anglican theologian John Stott. For more information about the LCJE international network, see www.lcje.net. For more information about the Lausanne movement worldwide, see www.lausanne.org.
